GLOBAL MARITIME SHIPPING LANES & REEFER TELEMETRY

Timely vessel connectivity and uncompromising cold-chain thermodynamics govern the shelf life and profitability of international commodity shipments. Sheshaan Global operates long-term booking contracts with Tier-1 ocean container carriers (Maersk, MSC, CMA CGM, Hapag-Lloyd, and ONE) connecting India's premier gateway seaports to 40+ international container terminals.

PRIMARY GATEWAY SEAPORTS (INDIA)

- Nhava Sheva (JNPT), Maharashtra: India's premier container hub for Fresh Onions, Grapes, Pomegranates, Bananas, Spices, and Rice. 24/7 reefer monitoring yards and direct ocean sailings.
- Mundra Port, Gujarat: Deep-draft all-weather port handling heavy agricultural bulks, Cumin, Sesame, Peanuts, Wheat, and Castor.
- Chennai & Tuticorin, Tamil Nadu: Southern maritime gateway for Pollachi Coconuts, Bananas, Moringa, and south Indian spice consignments.
- Pipavav Port, Gujarat: Specialized modern bulk grain and oilseed loading terminal.

REEFER ENGINEERING & COLD CHAIN STANDARDS

- Microprocessor Setpoint Control: Electronic micro-controllers maintain carriage setpoints within ±0.2°C accuracy throughout ocean voyage.
- Fresh Air Exchange (Ventilation): Calibrated air exchange rates (15 to 35 CBM/hr) exhaust ethylene and respiration carbon dioxide.
- Humidity Control (Dehumidification): Maintained at 65%–75% RH for alliums to prevent neck-rot, premature sprouting, and fungal growth.
- Dual TempTale Data Loggers: Embedded at return air and door points to provide uncompromised voyage temperature verification.

Cold-Chain Best Practice & Data Logger Protocol

All perishable consignments undergo forced-air pre-cooling to target core temperature prior to container stuffing. Dual electronic data loggers (Sensitech / TempTale) are positioned at the bottom-air delivery point and near the rear door to capture uncompromised temperature traces throughout ocean voyage. Reefer container plugs are monitored 24/7 at terminal gates and on-board ocean vessels.
